This limited warranty is limited to the repair or replacement cost, at First Onsite ’s option, of the Work provided by First Onsite and specifically excludes incidental or consequential damages. First Onsite specifically does not warrant or cover manufacturer’s, supplier’s, or others' warranties. There are no other warranties express or implied. In order to perfect a warranty, claim hereunder, the Client shall first provide First Onsite with written notice of a claim and provide First Onsite with a reasonable opportunity and access to the Work to determine the validity and merit of the claim and its response thereto. If any repair or replacement of the Work is undertaken, without the Client first permitting First Onsite with the written notice and access, as described herein, then this limited warranty shall be void and unenforceable. Notwithstanding anything else contained herein to the contrary, it is expressly understood and agreed that First Onsite ’s maximum aggregate liability to Client or any third-party, in any way related to this Client Work Agreement which shall include, without limitation, claims sounding in contract, tort, strict liability or otherwise shall not exceed the total amount actually paid by Client to First Onsite, for the Work. If First Onsite stores Client’s personal property (“Contents”), for any reason, then Client agrees to recover such Contents within fourteen (14) days from notice by First Onsite that the Contents are available for pickup, or as shall otherwise be agreed to by the parties in writing. If Client ceases paying for the storage of the Contents or if Client fails to pick up the Contents, as set forth herein, or otherwise mutually agreed to in writing by the parties, then First Onsite will presume the Contents are abandoned and may dispose of the Contents in any way it sees fit. Disposal may include, but is not limited to, putting the Contents in the garbage, selling the Contents, or donating the Contents to charity. Client waives any and all claims against First Onsite related to the disposal of Contents.

Non-Assignment. This Client Work Agreement is non-assignable by Client. First Onsite shall have the right to assign this Client Work Agreement.

Jurisdiction and Disputes. Client acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement is made with an organization headquartered and operating in the State of Colorado, and that this Agreement shall be governed by, construed, interpreted and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Colorado, without reference to conflicts of law principles. Client further acknowledges and agrees that any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the enforcement thereof, shall be solely brought in the Arapahoe County District Court or the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado, and Client irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such court, in any action or proceeding, and knowingly waives any objection Client may have related, in any way, to jurisdiction, venue or forum. Client further agrees that all claims between the parties pursuant to the Agreement shall be heard and determined only in such court(s) and Client agrees not to bring any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the enforcement hereof, in any other court. The parties also acknowledge and agree that either or both may file a copy of this provision with any court, as written evidence of the knowing, voluntary, and bargained agreement between the parties irrevocably waiving any objections to jurisdiction, venue, or forum. TO THE GREATEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE PARTIES WAIVE ANY STATUTORY OR COMMON LAW RIGHT TO VOID THIS PROVISION.

Claims and Disputes. CLIENT AND FIRST ONSITE , JOINTLY AND SEVERALLY, KNOWINGLY, WILLINGLY, AND VOLUNTARILY, AND BY THEIR EXPRESS DESIRE AND INTENT, DO EXPRESSLY HEREBY WAIVE a trial by jury on all issues, claims, counterclaims, and cross-claims of any kind or nature arising out of or in connection with this Client Work Agreement, and further waive all and any claims against each other for delay, exemplary, and consequential damages of any type or nature arising out of or relating to this Client Work Agreement. Client and First Onsite agree that any claim and/or dispute arising in connection with this Client Work Agreement shall be settled by arbitration, before one (1) arbitrator jointly agreed upon by the parties, the same to be administered by the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”), or at the sole discretion of First Onsite , some equivalent organization, and the proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the Construction Industry Arbitration Rules of the AAA (the “Rules”); notwithstanding the preceding, First Onsite may, at its sole discretion, in addition to instituting the arbitration proceedings, file separate judicial proceedings, in a court of appropriate jurisdiction, to establish and/or enforce a mechanic’s lien, and then stay the judicial proceedings pending the final determination of the arbitration. Client and First Onsite agree that the filing of a judicial action to establish and/or enforce a mechanic’s lien shall not be deemed to be a waiver of the right to have the claim settled by arbitration. Judgment on the award rendered through arbitration may be entered in any one or more courts having jurisdiction thereof, including, but not limited to, a court of appropriate jurisdiction located in the state and county where the Property is located, as well as a court of appropriate jurisdiction located in any state and county where the Client conducts business. In addition to any other powers conferred pursuant to the Rules, the arbitrator shall have the power to determine the right to the establishment and enforcement of a mechanic’s lien. The parties further agree that if First Onsite has filed a judicial proceeding to establish and/or enforce a mechanic's lien, the court where the judicial proceeding was filed shall have the right, upon motion filed by a party, to lift the stay of the judicial proceedings and to enter the judgment in accordance with the decision of the arbitrator and to enforce the same with respect to both the mechanic's lien and/or any monetary judgment rendered in connection with the arbitration proceedings. The arbitrator may, in the award, allocate all or part of the costs of the arbitration including, but not limited to, the fees of the arbitrator and the prevailing party's reasonable attorneys' fees. Absent such an award, the parties agree to equally split and pay the costs of the sole arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree on a single arbitrator, then each party shall nominate an arbitrator, with construction industry experience, and then those 2 nominated arbitrators shall jointly agree upon the selection of one arbitrator, who shall serve as the sole arbitrator.

Material Change. If any event outside the control of First Onsite causes the cost of First Onsite's performance to increase by an amount greater than: (i) ten percent (10%) of the amount initially estimated for the Work or (ii) ten thousand dollars ($10,000), whichever is less, then First Onsite may, in its sole discretion: (1) terminate the Agreement or (2) require a renegotiation of the cost of the Work. Further, if any event outside of the control of First Onsite causes a change in First Onsite's time for performance by at least ten percent (10%) between the date of this Agreement and the date of installation or procurement, the time for performance shall be equitably adjusted and, at First Onsite's option in its sole discretion, First Onsite may terminate the Agreement.

Severability. If any provision of this Client Work Agreement, or the application thereof shall, for any reason and to any extent, be deemed invalid or otherwise unenforceable, then such term shall be conformed to the maximum extent lawfully permitted pursuant to applicable law or regulation. The Client Work Agreement and the application of such provisions to other persons, firms, entities, or circumstances shall otherwise not be affected thereby and shall remain in full force and effect.

Controlling Terms. To the extent that a Client's notification, as described herein, purports to incorporate a scope of work and/or additional terms and conditions, the parties may incorporate such scope of work and/or additional terms into this Agreement, but only if it is agreed to in writing by both parties. ALL OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS SET FORTH IN THE CLIENT'S NOTICE RELATED TO THE WORK OR ANY OTHER PURPORTED MODIFICATION TO THE AGREEMENT, WHICH ARE NOT EXPRESSLY AGREED TO BY THE PARTIES IN WRITING, ARE EXPRESSLY EXCLUDED FROM THIS AGREEMENT AND ARE VOID. No oral agreement of whatever nature entered into by either of the parties or representatives of the parties shall be deemed to alter or amend the provisions of this Agreement. If the parties agree to incorporate the notification or scope of work into the Work, and that notification conflicts with this Agreement, this Agreement, and not the terms of the notice or scope of work, will control.
